

New Mission, Vision and Values

Mission Statement:

The Pembina Hills Arts Council is a non-profit that facilitates and encourages the growth and diversity of arts and culture for the Pembina Valley Region by providing an environment which stimulates artistic expression and interpretation through education and programming.

Vision:

To be the trend-setting hub for the arts throughout the Pembina Valley Region; creating a dynamic artistic scene in which creativity is experienced and developed.

Values:

Diversify and Accessibility: welcoming and respecting all people

Education and Enrichment: offering a diverse programme responding to an ever-changing and fluid art world

Community Input: responding to people's interests in the arts

Fostering Creativity: offering a safe environment for artistic expression

Building Relationships: with the staff, artists, instructors, volunteers, partners, and communities

Financial Sustainability: effectively utilizing time and resources

Truth and Reconciliation: committed to learning how we can incorporate this into our organization and taking action.

All members can have a say on our proposed new mission, vision and value statements at the next AGM.
